

Full House Franchise Systems Limited appoints Director of National Sales for Howard Johnson Brand in Canada

Mid-market brand puts emphasis on corporate, group and sports associations business

Oakville, ON (February 19, 2008) – Howard Johnson Canada announced today the appointment of Agnes Moskaluniec as the Director of National Sales for the brand.

Moskaluniec has been with Full House since February of 2007, working in their procurement division, Preferred Alliance Group. She takes on her new position with over ten years experience in the hospitality industry working with various travel companies, tourist attractions and major hotel chains.

As the Director of National Sales, Moskaluniec will work towards building a solid base of corporate, group and sports association business across Canada.

“We’re very excited to have Agnes move into her new position,” said Glen Blake, President of Howard Johnson Canada. “I know she’ll play an intricate role in further developing these important markets for us.”

Howard Johnson currently has 40 properties across Canada and are looking to further expand their portfolio of quality, mid-market properties throughout 2008.
