Howard Johnson Canada announces renovations in Bowmanville, Ontario

Oakville, ON (October 15, 2008) - Howard Johnson Canada is please to announce the renovations of the Howard Johnson Hotel, Bowmanville, Ontario. The property came under new ownership in May of this year and has been focused on making improvements ever since.

The 62-room hotel is currently undergoing a major renovation project, which began May 1, 2008 and is estimated to be completed by the end of October. The restoration of the property will include a complete overhaul of guest rooms including: new bedding, carpet, furniture and bathroom experience. Upgrades will also be made to the lobby and pool areas.

"We're excited to join the Howard Johnson Family," stated Gary Cheema of the hotel's new ownership group. "With these upgrades and our swimming pool, meeting facilities, free parking and complimentary continental breakfast, I know we will be a premier choice for anyone looking to stay in the Bowmanville area."

The Howard Johnson Bowmanville has also recently hired a new General Manager, Heather Gaudet to run the facility.

Howard Johnson Canada is currently on the drive for new franchises looking to join a team that focuses on a higher level of quality, consistency service, support for all of their franchisees and guests.
