Howard Johnson opens three new Canadian properties

Oakville, ON (June 9, 2009) – Howard Johnson Canada is pleased to welcome their newest franchise locations: the Howard Johnson Plaza Hotel Fredericton, New Brunswick, the Howard Johnson Hotel Port Alberni, British Columbia and the Howard Johnson Inn Tillsonburg, Ontario.

“We’re excited welcome these new properties and to further expand our brand across Canada,” said Glen Blake, president of Howard Johnson Canada. “Each property has its own unique features but all share a commitment to quality and customer service; they’re an excellent addition to our franchise family and a wonderful choice for anyone looking to stay in their respective marketplaces.”

The 112-room Howard Johnson Plaza Hotel in Fredericton is located at 958 Prospect Street and features an indoor pool, sauna, seasonal outdoor pool, onsite restaurant, lounge and free high speed internet access.

The Howard Johnson Tillsonburg features free high speed internet, free Rise & Dine breakfast, meeting/banquet facilities, an onsite restaurant, ample outdoor parking and is pet friendly. The property is conveniently located at 92 Simcoe St near Annadale Historical site, Lake Lisgar Waterpark, and Gopher Dunes.

The spacious 42 room Howard Johnson Hotel Port Alberni is located at 4850 Beaver Creek Road and is within walking distance to the local Marina. The property features free high speed internet, meeting/banquet facilities, is pet friendly and boasts an on-site restaurant, pub and liquor store.

There are currently 54 Howard Johnson locations open across Canada.
